

Clare-Louise Booth

Heritage Consultant

Professional Qualifications

Clare graduated from the University of Newcastle in 2004 and went on to study a post graduate diploma in urban conservation. Clare then undertook the MA in building conservation at the University of York, Kings Manor and is both a full member of the RTPI and the IHBC.

Selected Experience

- Significant experience working as a local authority Conservation Officer in North Yorkshire and consultancy support to other local authorities.
- Heritage asset research and understanding of significance.
- Design guidance and advice on individual schemes.
- Experienced in undertaking settlement character assessments as part of a positive strategy in the plan making process.
- Significant experience in public consultation and the designation of conservation areas and article 4 directions.
- Preparation of conservation area appraisals and management plans, heritage statements and impact assessment.
- Assessment of buildings at risk, survey and monitoring as well as urgent works notices.
- Recent key projects include:
  - Heritage Impact Assessment for new build snow and leisure centre with the setting of the Grade II* Transporter Bridge in Middlesbrough
  - Heritage Statement for conversion of grade II listed public house to hotel and apartments, Richmond
  - Design advice for new build retail development in Conservation Area, Northallerton
  - Heritage Assessment for Listed Buildings at Fletton Quays, Peterborough
  - Design advice and Masterplanning for redevelopment of Northallerton Prison
  - Design advice and Impact Assessment for new housing development in a Conservation Area, Goldborough
  - Heritage Impact Assessment for housing and commercial redevelopment schemes within the setting of multiple designated assets in Southwalk, London

07725 078 532

clare@elgheritage.co.uk

www.elgheritage.co.uk

@elgheritage

elgheritage

About Clare

Clare is passionate about the historic environment and is experienced in the assessment of historic buildings and places. Clare has produced many statements to accompany planning and listed building consent applications and is well placed to advise on suitable developments, having significant local authority experience of decision making.